The Softer Side of You!

Although her roots were planted in Eastern Tennessee, Sandra Melroy has moved with her husband, Roger, and their four sons no less than 15 times! Now enjoying life in DePere, she remains connected to friends throughout the world.

With a background in Home Economics and a passion for colour, Sandra looks forward to seasonal changes in fashion. Her enthusiasm for teaching has led to a business in sewing and design which extends to skin care for women and painting on silk.

Sandra invites you to preview the latest colours for fall; learn how to accessorize with silk scarves; and experiment with new beauty products to express your softer side! Fashion on the Fox has never been so fun!

REGISTER NOW FOR HER TRUNK SHOW
TUES. SEPT. 21—6:30 P.M.
INSIDE ATLAS COFFEE MILL AND CAFÉ
734-6871, EXT. 226

$15 PER PERSON—DINNER INCLUDED

She holds classes in her DePere studio and at the Green Bay Botanical Gardens ... and in October, right here at Paper Creations! Beginning and accomplished artists alike will enjoy Sandra's warm personality as they learn to paint on silk and then incorporate their hand-painted artwork into note cards.

Follow-up classes will take silk painted pieces into framed art; a seasonal collection of stationery with computer aided graphics; and finally into wearable art ... your very own silk scarf!

PAPER CREATIONS' STUDIO ETIQUETTE

We are delighted that so many of you take advantage of our studios for a variety of functions including Stamp Clubs, PCO Stamp and Scrap Events, Beading and Knitting to name a few. While we sometimes charge a minimal fee for the space, our goal is to make the rooms available at little to no cost to you. In that effort, our stamps, consumables, and other classroom supplies and equipment will no longer be available for your use. PLEASE NOTE: This will NOT AFFECT use during PCO classes.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION AND UNDERSTANDING.

beat her cancer for more than four years. However, in fall 2005, Cindy was again diagnosed with Stage IV breast cancer. Despite further treatment, Cindy's family recently learned that her cancer is pervasive and terminal. No longer able to work, Cindy left her 19-year job as a hospital medical technologist. Cindy's husband, Rod, will be taking unpaid family leave as needed to help care for Cindy and the children.

Donations and funds raised from this event will be used for living expenses and medical costs.

"Wine & Cheese Scrap 'n Stamp"

Wednesday, September 20
5 PM to 10 PM

Tired of cooking? Not enough time to scrap or stamp? Limited seating is still available for this evening dedicated to scrapping and stamping. Even better yet, we will take time out to taste a variety of wines paired with cheese, fruit, meats, and sweets. Come ready to laugh, have fun, and maybe win a door prize or two!
